Java Developer at TrueCover

I am an experienced Java Developer with a passion for crafting high-performance applications and Restful APIs using Spring Boot. Proficient in STS, Eclipse IDE, Git, and AWS, I excel at problem-solving, debugging, and ensuring code quality. My strong testing background and ability to adapt to new technologies make me a valuable asset to any Java development team. Let's collaborate to create innovative solutions together

PROJECTS

Insurer Dashboard , 45 Days

- Java
- CDAC

This portal featured a sophisticated access control system, allowing insurers to log in and access data pertinent to their respective groups. My role involved architecting and implementing the backend APIs, ensuring seamless data retrieval and management based on group-specific access rights. With proficiency in STS, Eclipse IDE, Git, and AWS, I maintained a high standard of code quality, robust problem-solving skills, and rigorous unit testing

Hr Dashboard, 31 Days

In a recent project, I led the development of an HR Dashboard, where I designed and implemented backend APIs. These APIs facilitated real-time data access for HR professionals, enabling efficient management of personnel and resources
